President Ronald & Nancy Reagan's "JUST SAY NO TO DRUGS CAMPAIGN"

Nancy Reagan once gave a young girl who asked how to respond if someone offered her drugs. "You just say no," Reagan replied. That was in 1982; the following year, she tapped New York ad agency Needham, Harper & Steers to build a full-fledged advertising offensive to combat the spread of drug use.

BELIEVERS TODAY

"GIVES AWAY TWO AFFORDABLE HOMES TO VETERANS"

We are committed to ending veteran homelessness and providing trauma healing and music therapy to our veteran communities across our nation.

Through our sound collaboration with The National Collation For Homeless Veterans, in Washington DC and local Veteran Affairs institutions in local communities, we can assure that in the very near future there will be no more homeless veterans.

Believers Today also provides musical instruments to disabled veterans and veteran facilities as part of its Music Therapy & Trauma Healing Program.

JETT EDWARDS, NEW CD RELEASES - 2017-18

Born in North Carolina, grew up under the guise of his father, Hiawatha Edwards, a renowned Gospel Singer. Wrote his first hit song in U.S at the age of 14, on Philly Sounds, entitled "Lonely Man". His new CD returns to his roots using only Bass, Drums, Harmonica, Vocals & Tambourines is a music revival.

Edwards a man of many hats, Artist, Songwriter, Bassist, Producer, Educator, Speaker also lectures on the origin of African American Culture and Music.

• Jett have managed/produced and collaborated with artist such as The Jackson's family label (Jackson Records as A & R Director), Five Blind Boys of Mississippi and Alabama, Swan Silvertones, Soul Stirrers, George Duke, Janet Jackson, Diana Ross, The Crusaders, James Brown, Dionne Warwick, KC & The Sunshine Band, Edgar Winter, Leon Ware, The Temptations, George Benson, just to name a few.

"WE ARE ONE RE-UNITED" 2018
Six song CD package including T shirt, sales going toward raising funds to purchase instruments for veterans.

"MUSIC FOR PEACE"

Jett Edwards, 2010 U.S. Release Music For Peace supporting "The Abolition Of Nuclear Weapons" Initiative, "HITS TOP 10 BILLBOARD CHARTS IN USA"

Jett Edward's special CD Music For Peace includes the lead single "Listen to the Fury of God" which was inspired by a poem written by Mr. Takashi Saito, revealing his experience as a 15 year old child during the bombing of his home town, Hiroshima. as well as "NPO Save this Blue Sea for Future Generations"; both important initiatives from Japan to the World.

"JAPAN MASS CHOIR -2016 "POWERFUL"

Worlds Largest Community Choir Successful US Southern Tour led them to #3 On USA Billboard Charts GMA (Dove Awards) 2016, Nominated Best Traditional LP Of The Year

History In The Making

"UNESCO-AFRICAN MISSION"

November 20th 2008, Jett Edwards will perform & produce a live DVD for the 2008 Global Summit,

AFRICAN MISSION CHARITY CONCERT

Featuring guest speakers Al Gore (Former Vice President), Leonardo DiCaprio, and other distinguished guests. Jett says his sole purpose is to create a Better Life for others through The Power Of Music.

"MADE N AMERICA / BLOOD OIL"

Presidential Campaign and Veterans Songs Music with a passion from an artist with a mission.

Edwards hits a hard debut on Billboard R&B Top 100 Singles Sales at #3 and on Hot 100 Billboard Charts at # 15.

As songs from his new CD single so clearly testify, Grammy-winning bassist, vocalist, producer and Americana/ funk music pioneer, Edward's words and music lean more to the secular than the sacred and speak to the heartbreak that has devastated the American Heartland as result of outsourcing, declining education standards and the pointless sacrifice American of blood .
